'Don't Rock Economic Boat,' Ike Warns Dems

President Asserts Jolting of Confidence Could Cause Decline

THOMASVILLE, Ga. (AP)—President Eisenhower says any shaking of confidence in America's economic future could turn the business slump into "a deep and protracted decline."

And that is the only thing that could do it, the President said in a telegram Thursday to 11 Democratic governors.

The telegram, dispatched from Eisenhower's vacation headquarters, was in reply to one from the governors last week. They said that "only federal action can prevent the recession from feeding on itself and deteriorating further into a depression."

Public Works Program

They called for a public works program, welfare and educational expansion, further easing of credit, and possibly a tax cut "directed to low income families."

Eisenhower again expressed confidence that "the underlying growth factors in the economy remain vigorous, and every indication is that they will reassert themselves later in the year."

He said the federal government already has taken many steps to combat the recession. He added he will "continue to take, or propose to the Congress, such steps as can contribute effectively to the health of the economy and the welfare of our people."

In substance he told the Democratic governors they should refrain from rocking the economic boat — doing anything to undermine long-term confidence.

The President's reply was addressed to Gov. Averell Harriman of New York for relay to his Democratic colleagues.

Promised Careful Study

The President thanked the state chief executives for their suggestions and promised they will be studied carefully.

At Albany, N.Y., Harriman said he was "heartened by the President's reply."

McElroy, Advisers Work on Revamping Dept. of Defense

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Defense McElroy and his reorganization advisers left today for Puerto Rico to "sort out the best from the good" among proposals for revamping the department.

McElroy, in thus summing up the agenda for a weekend of seclusion at Ramey Air Force Base, told newsmen the group has spent a good three weeks of interviewing well-qualified people to advise on how the Department of Defense might be organized on an improved basis.

McElroy said no one problem will be outstanding but various aspects will be considered, including the organization of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Armed Services Departments and the office of the secretary of defense.

Top officials of the Pentagon and the advisory group will hold uninterrupted talks between now and Monday.

Officials include Deputy Secretary Donald Quarles; Gen. Nathan F. Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff; and Murray Snyder, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs.

The advisory group includes Adm. Arthur Radford, Charles A. Coolidge and Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The conferees will be joined at Puerto Rico by Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, former NATO supreme commander and now chairman of the American Red Cross. Gruenther, because of his Red Cross duties, was unable to serve as a full member of the advisory group but agreed to sit in on the final assessment of recommendations.

A total of 26 persons will convene at Ramey. Most of them left in two planes in the morning, one of which was stopping at Miami to pick up Gen. Omar Bradley.

Passengers aboard the last plane to leave included the defense secretary and Mrs. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Quarles, Adm. and Mrs. Radford, Twining, Coolidge and Rockefeller.

Former Union Chief Denies Guilt

Beck Is Sentenced to Prison For Stealing Teamster Funds

SEATTLE (AP)—I am no more guilty than anyone in this courtroom," said Dave Beck after he was sentenced Thursday to up to 15 years in prison for stealing $1,900 from the Teamsters Union.

The recently deposed master of a labor empire with 1½ million members issued a formal statement indicating a long fight in the courts to escape the prison sentence.

"I am sure that in due time justice will prevail," he said.

Beck, 63, stood in shaken disbelief when King County Superior Judge George H. Revelle sentenced him for grand larceny for misappropriating funds from the sale of a union-owned car.

Beck's son Dave Jr., 37, had been sentenced earlier in the day on two counts of grand larceny for misappropriating $4,650 from the sale of two union cars.

A twitching muscle was the only movement from the flush-faced elder Beck when Judge Revelle

DAVE BECK Sentenced to Penitentiary told him: "Though we are dealing with a relatively small amount of money as measured against the good you have done, if I were in such a position of trust and had committed such a violation, I would expect to answer for it with the greatest consequences society permits."

Judge Revelle and Prosecutor Charles O. Carroll both said they would recommend to the State Board of Prison Terms and Paroles, which sets minimum sentences, that Beck serve at least three years, less time off for good behavior, which could trim his prison time to two years.

Attorneys for Beck Sr. said they would appeal the grand larceny conviction. Beck Sr. remained free on $3,000 bail.

Sentencing of young Beck was deferred for three years on condition that he (1) pay a $2,000 fine plus the costs of his trial, (2) repay the $4,650 to the Teamsters Union with his own funds and (3) sever all connections with organized labor either as an officer or employee.

Aged Man Dies After Beating

Was One of Five Attacked by Youths

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP)—Basil Carr, 62, died today of injuries received in what police described as an unprovoked beating by two teen-agers.

Carr was one of five adults attacked by ten-agers Wednesday night.

The youths and victims all are taken by teen-agers Wednesday night.

Jackie Lee Jones, 17, a high school senior, and James Leroy Bishop, 18, were identified as the assailants by some of the victims, police said. The two youths were charged with felonious assault.

"The assault on five persons was unprovoked," Police Chief Warren Norman said.

Others allegedly beaten by the youths were identified as Bobby Haddock, 26; Kenneth Mullings, 32; Emmett A. Bedell, 79; and Alvin Johnson, 24. All required hospital treatment.

Police said Carr apparently was the first victim.

Leroy Gilmore, a tavern operator, told officers that Carr was a customer in the bar and that one of the youths who had been standing near the front of the building walked over and struck Carr as the latter got off a bar stool and prepared to leave. Carr was knocked unconscious by the blow.

Mullings and Carr were attacked in or near taverns. Haddock was accosted as he was parking his car; Johnson as he was waiting for a bus.

Verdict In Espionage Trial Is Expected

WASHINGTON (AP)—The espionage conspiracy trial of M. Sgt. Roy A. Rhodes, accused of plotting to betray his country to Russia, goes to a military court today for a verdict.

A court-martial jury of 10 Army officers will decide his fate. Acquittal and freedom or a dishonorable discharge and possible life imprisonment are the alternatives for Rhodes.

A decorated veteran of 15 years, Rhodes was in charge of the car pool at the U.S. Embassy in Moscow from 1951 to 1953.

In a written confession to the FBI and in parallel testimony in a Brooklyn trial last fall, Rhodes told of giving information to the Soviets, receiving upwards of $3,000 in rubles from them, and finding himself involved "up to my neck."

But he cannot now be convicted for those acts, because since then he has been officially out of the Army for one day.

He also said he agreed to cooperate with the Soviets on his return to this country, and that forms the basis of the conspiracy charge against him. The law holds one conspirator liable for the acts of others.

Substance Which Destroys Blood Clots Discovered

BOSTON, Mass. (AP)—Discovery of a mold extract which seeks and destroys fresh blood clots in minutes was announced today by the Massachusetts Heart Assn.

The mold extract, discovered by Dr. Mario Stefanini at St. Elizabeth's Hospital, is described as innocuous and a treatment which can be used safely on the sickest patient.

The substance is credited with furnishing quick relief for sufferers of ailments which involve blood clotting.

The mold is given by injection, enters the blood stream and travels to the clot. If used early enough, the announcement said, it can prevent much long-term damage by clots.

Stefanini said the technique can be used in any good hospital, although not yet ready for home use by family physicians.

More than 50 molds were tried and eventually, narrowed down to two, either of which is effective. They produce a chemical which dissolves proteins, which a blood clot is.

Errant Plane Passengers Offered Release

Negotiations With N. Korean Regime Demanded By Reds

TOKYO (AP)—The Communists today offered to give up anyone from the South Korean airliner that flew north Sunday who wants to quit North Korea. But it hedged by demanding that the South Korean government negotiate the release directly with the North Korean regime.

"Among those who were aboard the plane which came over to the North, there are some who desire to return," Pyongyang radio said. "If they desire so, they will be allowed to go where they want to."

But the Red radio added: "Our side has already made it clear if the South Korean authorities really want to realize the hope of those desiring to return home, it is proper that they should directly approach the government of the Democratic Peoples Republic of (North) Korea for this."

Previously the South Korean government had refused to deal with the Communists on the issue, maintaining their legal position that the Red regime is an illegal government which the Seoul government does not recognize.

The 34 people aboard the Korean National Airlines DC3 included 2 American pilots, a West German couple and 30 Koreans, 2 of the latter children.

A North Korean newsman told reporters at Panmunjom Tuesday that some of the 34 were wounded and receiving medical treatment. This strengthened the belief in Seoul that the plane had been seized in the air by Red agents after a battle.

The new Communist demand for negotiations with President Syngman Rhee's government aroused immediate speculation that the Reds are seeking talks into which they could introduce their demands for withdrawal of U. S. troops from South Korea and unification elections under the auspices of "neutral" nations.

U. S. and South Korean spokesmen have rejected both demands, contending that the Americans cannot pull out until the peninsula is safely unified and elections in the North will be free only if held under U. N. supervision.

U. S. and South Korean officials are certain that Communist agents slipped aboard the plane as passengers and took it over at gunpoint or forced the two American pilots to fly north.

The plane was on a flight from Pusan to Seoul. Its pilot was Wilis P. Hobbs, Vallejo, Calif. The copilot was Lt. Col. Howard W. McClellan, Buchanan, Mich., who was along to log extra flight time and pay.

Nathan Leopold, 'Thrill Murderer,' Granted Parole

Killer of Boy Served 33 Years In Illinois Prison

Seeks Laboratory Post In Hospital In Puerto Rico

JOLIET, Ill. (AP)—Nathan Leopold, one of the nation's most widely known convicts, who was granted a parole Thursday, immediately began planning a change in prison jobs to better prepare him for "a life of service to his fellow man."

Now a clerk in the chief engineer's office at Stateville Prison, Leopold told his attorney that he wanted to be shifted to the prison hospital.

Leopold's parole plea focused on the offer of a job as a laboratory technician in a rural hospital operated by the Church of the Brethren in Castaper, Puerto Rico.

Where he'll go will be decided by parole officials. It may take three or four weeks until he actually leaves prison.

"Leopold now wants only this opportunity to serve his fellow man," said his attorney, Elmer Gertz. "He wants to avoid the glare of publicity and continue the rigid routine of hard work to which he dedicated himself in more than 33 years in prison."

Leopold has been in Stateville since Sept. 11, 1924, for his part in the thrill slaying of Bobby Franks, 14, in Chicago. Sent to prison with him for terms of life for murder and 99 years for kidnapping was Richard Loeb, who was slashed to death by another inmate in 1936.

The balding, paunchy Leopold, 53, will remain in the prison three or four weeks, officials said, as they check and approve his arrangements for a home and job.

Leopold's parole for five years came on a split vote of the five-man Illinois Parole and Pardon Board. The vote was not announced.

But the board agreed unanimously to parole Roger Touhy, 60, Prohibition Era gang leader serving a long term for a kidnapping, and a prison break out. Touhy claimed the kidnapping never occurred, a contention that has won considerable support.

Both boys are confined to the detention room in county jail waiting a hearing before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin sometime next week.

Settlement Prospects Clouded

Five French Consuls Expelled by Tunisians

TUNIS (AP)—More angry moves by the Tunisian government and French troops clouded the prospects today for U.S.-British efforts to conciliate the North African dispute.

Tunisia pulled five French consuls out of their posts and hurried them to Tunis, enforcing a "get out" order by President Habib Bourguiba that had lain dormant for 10 days.

The action against the consuls was in retaliation for the overnight detention by French troops of the top local official and two Tunisian National Guardsmen after a land mine explosion in the south Tunisian village of Remada.

The mine blew up a French jeep and wounded two soldiers. French troops from the small local post at Remada took guard stations around the village, which is near the Libyan border.

French-Tunisian relations blew up Feb. 8, when French planes from Algeria attacked the border village of Sakiet Sidi Youssef and killed 78 men, women and children. The French charged the town was one of a number in Tunisia sheltering Algerian rebels.

France had rejected orders to close the five consulates and withdraw the 15,000 troops she still has in Tunisia on the ground that their presence is provided by the 1956 treaty granting Tunisia independence.

Tunisia got around the treaty by declaring the five consuls persona non grata (personally unwelcome), which under diplomatic custom automatically requires their withdrawal. But the Tunisian government added that it had the right to close the consulates anyway as an independent nation.

Three of the consuls were escorted to Tunis Thursday night and were released. Two others from distant southern posts spent the night at Sfax. Four other

Could Tie Up Service In 7 States

Threat Of Strike Increases At Power Plant Near Gallipolis

GALLIPOLIS, Ohio (AP)—The decision on a strike at the nearby Kyger Creek power plant, which could possibly tie up electric service to some extent in seven states, rests in the hands of the negotiating committee for the Utility Workers Union of America (UWUA).

At a meeting of the 193 utility workers at the Ohio Valley Electric Corp.'s Kyger Creek plant Thursday, workers voted to guarantee a 24-hour postponement of the threatened strike. After the postponement period is over, they agreed, the negotiating committee can call a strike whenever necessary.

If the strike is called by the union, officials report they will picket plants of Ohio Valley Electric's 15 sponsoring companies in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana, Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Maryland and Virginia.

Harold J. Straub, union vice president, said the workers approved the 24-hour postponement on the insistence of federal mediator George H. Bell.

Although negotiations have been recessed indefinitely, Bell said he could use the 24-hour period in his private talks with the two parties. He reported some new ideas have been brought up and are being explored.

Straub said the effect of the guarantee is to put the company on notice that bargaining must begin quickly. "If there's substantial progress, there won't be a strike," he added.

James G. Cox, administrative assistant to Ohio Valley Electric, said the Kyger Creek plant allowed all workers who wanted to attend the union meeting to leave their jobs without penalty. He said supervisory personnel filled in at the plant to keep up the flow of electrical power to the Atomic Energy Commission's plant in Pike County.

HOW'S THE ROOF? — This bird in Medford, Mass., must be wondering whether the roof of his house will support all that snow. Near-zero temperatures made the weather unfit for man, beast—or bird.

Ohio Valley Electric officials have contended that, if the strike is called, supervisory personnel could operate the Kyger Creek plant and any of the other sponsoring plants.

The principal issues in dispute concern wages and union security clauses to be written into the initial contract at the big power plant. The plant is 15 miles north of here along the Ohio River.

The Utility Workers Union of America was certified as bargaining agent of Kyger Creek employees last October.

However, it is not the only union representing the 15,000 workers in the 15 sponsoring plants. Many belong to the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers (IBEW).

IBEW officials have said their union will not respect UWUA picket lines.

Both unions are AFL-CIO affiliates.

The 15 companies forming OVEC are:

Cincinnati Gas and Electric Co., Columbus and Southern Ohio Electric Co., Dayton Power and Light Co., Ohio Edison Co., Ohio Power Co., and the Toledo Edison Co. in Ohio; Kentucky Utilities, and Louisville Gas and Electric Co. in Kentucky; Appalachian Electric Co., Monongahela Power Co., Pennsylvania Power Co., and The Western Pennsylvania Power Co. in Pennsylvania; Indiana and Michigan Electric Co. and the Southern Indiana Gas and Electric Co. in Indiana, and the Potomac Edison Co. in Maryland and Virginia.

Some of the generated power from these companies also goes into West Virginia.

East Palestine Man Is Awarded $2,000

LISBON — A Common Pleas court jury late Thursday afternoon returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $2,000 as the aftermath of an auto accident May 5, 1956 on Rt. 14, just west of its junction with Rt. 170 near East Palestine.

Ben Davis Jr., of 272 E. Grant St., East Palestine, had sued Harry F. Wentz of 410 Martin St., East Palestine for $15,000. Davis claimed Wentz was driving left of center when their cars collided, injuring the plaintiff.

The jury was picked Wednesday morning.

Judge Joel H. Sharp, who presided, excused the jurors until March 3 when they will report at 9 a.m.

Fire In Springfield Causes $100,000 Loss

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (AP) — Because two threatening situations were not allowed to develop, damage from a fire Thursday night at the Borden dairy plant here was less than it might have been, firemen say.

The fire, which did an estimated $100,000 damage, was confined to a storage room on the top floor of the three-story building. An employee, whose identity is not known, closed a door leading to the cheese department, preventing the fire's spread.

The other threat came from a tank containing 2,000 gallons of ammonia. Firemen brought the fire under control just before flames reached it.

Threaten Open Revolt

Midwest GOP Leaders Blast Administration Farm Policies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Midwest congressional Republicans threatened open revolt today against Eisenhower administration farm policies.

Their expressed dissatisfaction with Secretary of Agriculture Benson's handling of farm problems erupted Thursday at a closed door strategy session attended by more than 30 GOP Midwestern House members.

Also on hand were Republican National Chairman M. J. McCarroll and Republican House leaders. Acorn was noncommittal, saying it was just one of many meetings to discuss party problems.

House leaders, however, made no effort to minimize the extent of GOP worry they say has developed over corn belt reaction to Eisenhower-Benson policies. They said the situation was brought to a head by the near defeat of a Republican candidate in Tuesday's special election in Minnesota.

In that contest for the House seat made vacant by the death of veteran GOP Rep. August Anderson, Republican Albert Quie won by only 668 votes over Democrat Eugene Foley although the district had been in Republican hands since 1893.

Benson has asked authority to cut price support levels at a time when farmers contend market prices already are too low. Benson already has ordered dairy price supports cut to the legal minimum effective April 1. He contends lower crop prices would permit farmers to earn more by producing and selling more. Meantime, surpluses are building up in government hands despite production controls.

House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts said Midwest-

Pepper's Last Chance

By RAYMOND MOLEY

All over the nation, on a scale much greater than is generally believed, the political machine of the unions, crystallized in the AFL-CIO Committee on Political Education (COPE), is out to liquidate conservative members of Congress of both parties.

This powerful, experienced political organization is set to accomplish AFL President George Meany's determination to win for "liberals" in 1958.

Evidence that this drive will extend into the South has been clear to me everywhere on a trip — in Virginia, in North Carolina and in northern Florida. It will also make a heavy fight in Texas, where I go from here.

Sen. Spessard Holland, a notable, respected conservative who has represented Florida for several years, is especially obnoxious to the political labor bosses. They fought him unsuccessfully when he ran for governor 18 years ago and have regularly opposed him since.

UNLIKE SOME "modern" Republicans who would turn one battered cheek after another and tempt the COPE with the sweet milk of appeasement, Holland openly accepts the challenge.

"They don't seem to be able to carry their own people with them he said recently. 'Members of labor organizations are just like other American citizens; they have their own views and convictions and like to follow them.'

For a while there were indications that three fairly well known Florida Democrats were entertaining the idea of contesting with Holland in the primary. But they see to have decided that this would be a waste of effort.

It was believed for a time that William C. Cramer, a young Republican who represents the Tampa district in the U.S. House of Representatives, would essay to oppose Holland in the election. But the judgment is quite general over the South that the bayonets in Little Rock did much more than prevent disorder there and effectively ruined Republican chances except in a few isolated spots.

CRAMER OCCUPIES one of those spots in his district which he carried with 56.4 per cent of the vote in 1956 and which will probably return him this year.

And so the portents now point to that veteran "liberal," Claude Pepper, who was defeated by George A. Smathers after a terrific fight in 1950.

Since Pepper refrained from a return match with Smathers in 1956, it would seem that this year presents his last chance for a comeback.

His philosophy, thoroughly exposed in 1950, would meet the Meany test perfectly. In fact his solid core of strength was always centered in the political labor leaders of the state And this year they are able to give him much more support than ever before.

It is believed that he looks forward eagerly to this contest with such powerful national support. His career was rooted in hard times which he attributed to Republicans. And now it looks as if such a break of fortune in the economy would tempt him again

What Lies At the Top of the Summit?

The trouble with a summit conference, as many skeptics have tried to make clear, is that there would be nothing to talk about if such a conference were held in good faith. Therefore, why hold it in bad faith?

If the Soviet Union really wanted to reach an understanding on a live-and-let-live basis, that could be done more handily and with much better prospect of endurance by workaday diplomats using ordinary diplomatic channels.

In fact, if the Soviet Union were not pinned in the same trap that holds the United States — the need to prove it can gain the upper hand — its political leaders could get everything they profess to want from a summit conference by an exchange of cablegrams.

All they need to do is prove by deeds that they have abandoned their policy of conspiring against the security of every non-Communist government on earth and want to live on good terms with their international neighbors — just as Litvinov promised Franklin Roosevelt in 1934, when the United States started its own policy of trying to get along with the Kremlin.

Perhaps there will be a summit conference, if only to satisfy those who think the Western powers should go the last mile to explore every faint hope of understanding with the government of Russia. But one wonders what might happen if, instead of government officials with prejudices and preconceptions to preserve, it were possible to go to the top of the summit, instead of lingering on the slopes.

The question is useful only to show the weakness of governments when they must settle problems of fundamental interest to their citizens. They invariably come to represent the people who are in government, instead of the people who support the government.

In the United States, it is a constitutional truth that the sovereign people, themselves, are the ultimate power. In the Soviet Union, the ultimate power lies in the Supreme Soviet.

But even in the framework of Russian government, the people are nominally sovereign, in the sense that they authorize the Supreme Soviet.

Yet, Americans and Russians have no means of meeting each other, except through the personalities of officials who are in some sense or in some degree the prisoners of their pasts. What they try to prove when they negotiate is not necessarily what Americans and Russians believe should be proved.

There is skepticism about a meeting at the summit, but no one ever sees the summit in diplomacy. That is where the people live whose destinies will be affected by all the negotiations made in the foothills.

Strategy For a Showdown

The quickest way for an Ohioan to get perspective on the issue of whether or not the right to hold a job can be abridged in this state by requiring membership in or payment or nonpayment to a union is this:

The showdown in Ohio will be part of a showdown in as many as eight states in 1958. Seventeen states already have had a showdown. Several are expecting to have one before 1960, including Illinois.

California's showdown this year will involve the candidates for governor, who already have taken positions on the issue. Other states ready for a decision are Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Montana and Washington, where a similar proposal was swamped two-to-one in 1956.

The Washington swamping was a triumph for Dave Beck in 1956, but Beck is not as big a man in Washington as he was then—either the state or the capital of the United States. Idaho has ticked the proposal twice, but its voters too will get another chance. The strategy of the showdown is popular voting.

In Kansas, the legislature outlawed the union shop, only to be blocked by a governor's veto in 1956. The people will make the decision this time. Louisianans, likewise, have seen the issue kicked around by their legislators, first one way, then the other. The next time, they may vote on it, themselves.

For years, union pressure blocs have exerted undue influence on lawmakers, in the absence of contrary pressure. But exerting pressure on all the voters of a state is a project of far greater magnitude. It cannot be done by a lobby.

No one yet has discovered an argument that will make a citizen not committed to the union shop for a special reason understand why an employer or labor organization should have a legal right to take away his right to a free choice about what he joins or does not join.

The simplest way to settle the issue would be by action in Congress. But congressmen cringe and cower at the prospect of going on record against union leaders. Therefore, the issue must be settled by the people themselves, in the states.

It is possible that by the end of this year upward of half of the 48 states will have settled it.

The Kiwanis Kapers

Salem Kiwanis Club members, as serious and faithful as any civic organization in promoting things for the good of the community, also are equally adept in endeavors of a lighter vein. Hence, the success of the annual Kiwanis Kapers.

The Kapers of 1958 will be presented by the light-hearted Kiwanians Monday and Tuesday evenings at the high school auditorium and this season's performances, as in the past, promise a good night of entertainment.

All the "guys and dolls" of the Kapers cast have put many hours of rehearsal behind them in readiness for the opening curtain call. The Kapers is highly recommended for those who want a respite from their cares of the day.

Once Over

How to break a northerner's heart. Send him a letter like this from Florida.

Dear Joe: Well, here we are in Florida and we hate to make you feel bad by reporting that the weather is not too disagreeable and that we are feeling no pain.

I know what a lift you would get from news that we spend the day bundled up in furs and the nights reading racing charts under buffalo robes but you will just have to grin and bear the fact we are in no distress.

It has been a cold winter but the Florida sun is still in business at the old stand, the palm trees are waving, the birds are caroling away at dawn and it will kill you, no doubt, when I get home and you find I have a good suntan and feel fine.

THERE IS THIS big difference between Florida and the north in Florida bad weather is NEWS. Back home it is just routine stuff. Even a cold spell down here I can always look forward to a swim tomorrow. Back north you file and forget the ocean in October and don't even expect a dip for six months.

There is nothing that makes you happier than information that a friend who went south wore an overcoat for a couple of hours and was seen taking cough drops at a dog-track. So I will not disappoint you too much, except to say we just had it 80 in the shade enjoyed lunch on the beach and had to buy paintment for a bad burn on our beazer.

Don't spread this around as it will make a lot of my friends sore but the Gulf Stream is still running, with no icebreakers what-over in it, my collar wilted yesterday, we had to stop at a gas station because our radiator boiled over and it is several days since I slept in woolen pajamas.

Not a songbird has been picked up frozen anywhere and it is a sure bet tropical flowers will live.

Rough on Royalty

The Arab States Delegations Office, 120 E. 56th st, New York City, has informed U.S. newspapers it will provide background information about the Arab world, meaning the new United Arab Republic, presumably.

The information will be welcome. It finally has dawned on U.S. newspapers that the Arab "kings" who have been the symbols of corrupt governments in the Middle East are on the defensive and that the first to go was the atrocious king of Egypt. At the same time, it has dawned on U.S. newspapers that Rudyard Kipling has been dead since 1936 and the "white man's burden" may have died with him.

There is, in short, something new under the Mediterranean sun — Arab nationalism that does not take its cues from abroad. All information will be welcome.

Not a fishing reel got iced up all winter, there has been no skating on Biscayne Blvd., and you need not bother to send me any hot water bottles, hipboots, bearskin gloves or quinine and whisky.

With me it is never so uncomfortable in the Miami Dizzy Zone that I would rather be back home where chilblains are wholesale and guaranteed all winter. So just excuse me for having a good winter vacation, watch your rheumatism and be a sport about things.

THE SQUAWK-CHUTE. 2. Is there any bigger laugh than that provided by top state and city officials sounding off on the need for smaller cars and yet demanding their 1958 autos in the kingsize models? Beany.

A. They meant smaller autos for you, Beany. Not for themselves.

Now how many comedians' faces are red over Laurence Olivier's portrayal of a brassy, sleazy, leering comic in the play "The Entertainers?"

Since a lawyer admitted he "snook" a tape recorder, concealed in his briefcase, into an interview with a government agency official, briefcase are having tough going. This can lead to an office routine: "Mr. Figgley is here." "Has he a briefcase?" "Yes." "Check it and then let him in."

Some folks think we are in a depression when a quiz show cuts its top prize from $100,000 to $99,000.

A LABOR UNION has voted for contracts giving them their own birthdays off with pay. If they choose to go to work, double pay. The really smart employer will now send singing telegrams. And the really big-hearted corporation head, meeting an employee who has chosen to report for work, will chirp. "If the board of directors had known you were coming they would have baked a cake."

Kremlin Rulers Told Off in President's Last Letter

A British foreign office spokesman calls it a "refreshing" piece of diplomatic writing. It is considered by Prime Minister Macmillan as an "excellent statement. The United Press report speaks of it as 'tartly worded.' Certainly the letter sent by President Eisenhower to Soviet Premier Bulganin is rightly described as unusual.

And most Americans will say it was about time that the President told off the Kremlin rulers with a forthright statement of the facts of international life today.

For if the Soviet chiefs really want an East-West conference in order to relieve tension, they have gone about it the wrong way. There is no advantage to be gained by insulting the President, the secretary of state and the American people by attributing unworthy motives to them and then demanding a meeting to discuss only the things prescribed by Moscow for consideration.

While Bulganin signs the letters, Khrushchev concurrently makes a vicious and bitter attack in public speeches. Mr. Eisenhower wisely coupled the two and declared that this battle of words is not going to help solve international problems.

"I begin to wonder, Mr. Chairman, wrote the President, 'whether we shall get anywhere by continuing to write speeches to each other.'

This was but one of a series of acid comments which normally do not occur in diplomatic notes or interchanges. The President added:

"I deplore the constantly mounting accusations within the Soviet Union that the United States is a nation ruled by aggressive, war-minded imperialists. Mr. Khrushchev's speech of Jan. 22 is an outstanding example of such charges and indeed they are to be found in your Feb. 1 note."

MR. EISENHOWER, in a vein of challenging sarcasm, declared that "it is possible that Soviet leadership feels it necessary deliberately to misrepresent the American viewpoint" and that, "if so, one effect would be to confuse their own people and the people of those Eastern European countries under their domination, who are denied access to world information except as the Soviet leaders permit."

This is but another way of saying that the Communist chieftains are spreading false reports about the motives of the American people in an apparent attempt to rouse hostility toward the United States.

This is but another way of saying that the Communist chieftains are spreading false reports about the motives of the American people in an apparent attempt to rouse hostility toward the United States.

MR. EISENHOWER, in a vein of challenging sarcasm, declared that "it is possible that Soviet leadership feels it necessary deliberately to misrepresent the American viewpoint" and that, "if so, one effect would be to confuse their own people and the people of those Eastern European countries under their domination, who are denied access to world information except as the Soviet leaders permit."

"Another effect" continued the President, "would be to make true cooperation more difficult." But while the President said that "polemics" will not, I fear, advance us along the path of better relations," he did argue for a different approach — some way of conducting the negotiations without the artificiality of propaganda maneuvers.

"I cannot avoid the feeling," declared the President, "that if out two countries are to move ahead to the establishment of better relations, we must find some ways other than mere prolongation of repetitive public debate."

MR. EISENHOWER brushed aside the "polemics" after an excellent rebuttal of every argument offered by the Bulganin-Khrushchev notes and speeches.

"I prefer," said the President, "to assume that these misrepresentations are not wilful but result from genuine misconceptions which could be done away with."

This section is in the polite style of diplomacy which recites answers to charges and then adopts the customary tactics of giving the other side a way out.

The Eisenhower letter is unlike any that has been written in the exchanges heretofore between the Soviet Union and the United States.

It disposes bluntly of any theory that the Soviet Union can select America's secretary of state. The President makes it clear that Secretary Dulles will participate in the making of policies with reference to an East-West meeting, whether or not the Soviet rulers like it.

ALTOGETHER, the Eisenhower letter — doubtless prepared at the White House from point-by-point memoranda furnished by the State Department — calls the Soviet bluff.

If the Moscow regime really wants a "summit" conference, it can have one. But there must first be a demonstration through diplomatic channels that the Soviets are sincere — a difficult proposition to establish when there is evidently no sincerity on the part of the Communists. For they believe in giving pledges only to break them.

A free government in Soviet Russia can alone bring about world peace — and that means the ousting of the present clique by the people of the Soviet Union, who sooner or later will find a way to break the chains of bond age.

Patience and unswerving devotion to ideals will in the long run vindicate America's policy of restraint and of courageous indifference to all demands for appeasement of the gangsters in Moscow.

The big move to protect the young from rocketry is picking up momentum. Nothing will stop it or even slow it down, because if one thing is sure about the American way, it is the certainty that the young will be protected from all avoidable hazard.

No researcher has got around yet to digging for evidence that American boys lost half a generation of learn-how in rocketry because their over-zealous protectors saved them from the avoidable hazard of fireworks. He would be wasting his time. Fireworks had to go. They were unsafe.

During World War II, it became unpleasantly plain that over-protecting the young from the weather elements and some of nature's less pleasant aspects had been poor preparation for survival in combat. But no one thought seriously about it, even while the casualty lists were still being published. It was a forgotten afterward.

Every physical education instructor and draft examiner knows that the practice of keeping little Johnny and Susie from hurting their tender feet and legs by hoofing it to where they want to be has raised a generation of arm-chair cripples. But few parents dare to open their mouths, lest they be accused of sadism for thinking children should walk. They aren't even allowed to chew anything tougher than a cream puff.

Even riskier — and don't let the big talk about bearing down harder on education fool you — is to point out it is no favor to kids to let them coast through school on a bland curriculum of blocks, sandpiles, finger-painting, music appreciation, hair - dressing and Folks never get a chance to do more with a dime — or lots of dimes — as during the March of Dimes!

The average life of women has increased, meaning that many more years to tell fibs about their age.

When married folks start barking at each other they have a good chance of leading a dog's life. Tough breaks are what too many friends bore you with.

It's trying on the nerves of people who have to eat and run in the morning and run and eat at noon.

bird-watching. Education, itself, has been turned into an avoidable hazard that kiddies must be steered clear of, lest they fracture their egos.

Children must be told nothing that would impinge on their soft sensibilities, permitted to read nothing which might strengthen their instinct to protect themselves from rottenness, permitted to see nothing that would make them want to close their eyes.

They must be pumped full of perfumed hogwash so they will have no room for facts of life like the realities of government, as opposed to what they are taught in civics classes, or the realities of cause and effect in history, economics, sociology etc.

Everything conceivable must be done to make certain they will be inadequately prepared to survive in the kind of world they theoretically are being prepared to enter. With the exception of the lucky few whose parents know something about toughening them for adversity and the underprivileged many who get toughened by their own tough luck, modern kids are being protected into a condition of helplessness.

Some of the girls don't know how to prepare a meal. Some of the boys don't know how to put meat on the table anyway.

Obviously, the young must be protected from rockets, having been protected from everything else. It may not occur to anyone for a long time that the best way to protect them from rockets would be to let them learn about the dangers on rocketry.

The burnt child never would have learned to dread the fire if Popsie and Mom had made their little arling wear his asbestos mittens 24 hours a day.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

There was a time when Jim Hoffa said proudly that his local union bought his business agents new limousines each year. But the old order changeth. Or perhaps the boys are shy these days. Whatever it is, there was not a high priced limousine to be seen in the parking lot outside the Castaways Motel, north of Miami Beach, where the Teamsters' high command met last week.

And, at noon-time and through the afternoon, the cars were not headed in the direction of Hialeah. The boys were not off to the races. They were running a business meeting. They worked hard. They decided to pick no fights. One wit was heard to murmur that this was "Halos for Hoffa week."

There was no doubt that the Teamsters were bending in the windstorm blown up by Sen. Jom McClellan's committee. New blood was being pumped in.

Even the opposition was courteously treated — and one Hoffa opponent—Cincinnati's Jim Lukens—was flown in at national office expense to talk things over with the top Team leadership.

But not all the halos which Hoffa's followers could haul in if each drove down with a truckload full can so dazzle the eyes of the public that it will forget what it has seen of union government — throughout the labor movement.

It isn't just Jim Hoffa. It's what has happened to labor leadership and union democracy.

IT IS A SIGN of these troubled times that criticism of union democracy is coming more frequently and heavily from labor's friends.

The other week The Fund For the Republic released a reform program. Within a few weeks the American Civil Liberties Union's national board will call for action. An unpublished copy of the report — "The Labor Union Bill of Rights" said, in effect, that what happens inside a union no longer is its own affair. The public can no longer be ignored. Here is what the report will say:

"Congress has accepted, as a legitimate extension of collective bargaining, a provision in the contract between a labor union and an employer that all his employees must join a union if the majority of them so decide.

"This grant of 'private sovereignty' transforms a voluntary association into a quasi-public body, which has a special responsibility for exemplary conduct toward all of its members.

"An organization with far reaching control over the power of its members to earn a living must guarantee to them in internal democracy the equivalent of what the Constitution requires our government to guarantee to its citizens — free speech and fair procedures and non-discrimination.

"A FREE SOCIETY needs the practices of civil liberties, not only by the government but by all of its other great institutions . . . towards this end the American Civil Liberties Union has for 15 years been urging the organized labor movement to adopt improved internal practices of civil liberties . . .

The ACLU then proposes a six-point labor union Bill of Rights which to this observer not only outlines democratic procedure but serves notice that even labor's friends now believe that the public has the right to know that a democratic labor movement exists within its midst.

The ACLU makes this demand in most of its points when it calls for the creation of a Public Appeals Board.

THIS SHOULD be composed of citizens of public repute who shall substitute a permanent panel available for reviews of appeals by rank-and-file members who believe they have been denied their civil rights inside a union.

This appeals board is to be created by the union itself.

The ACLU goes even further. It calls for "an agency or group completely outside the union," if necessary, to give members a fair trial should charges be brought against them.

Free elections being part of our free system, in and out of unions, the ACLU states that it would not hurt at all if polling for officers is done under the supervision of "an outside agency."

Obviously that bad breath, not only of scandal but of shrinking suffrage, is so strong that even labor's best friends feel they must tell them before it's too late.

Guarding Your Health

By DR. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Germ-Caused Heart Disease

On this occasion I shall discuss one of the less common forms of heart disease. I have recently discussed most of the common ones, such as coronary thrombosis, angina pectoris, congenital heart disease and rheumatic heart disease.

The subject today, therefore, is a disorder known as subacute bacterial endocarditis.

IT IS A DISORDER in which the blood stream and valves of the heart are invaded by germs of the streptococcus family. These germs produce growths or vegetations on the heart valves which may break off and be carried by the blood to other parts of the body. It was formerly almost always a fatal disease, but now an extremely high percentage of those who get it can be successfully treated.

AS A RULE, subacute bacterial endocarditis begins gradually. The patient may first show signs of easy tiring, there is loss of energy and lack of pep. Later on there are likely to be chilly sensations, sweating and fever.

Sometimes muscle or joint pains and headache are present. These symptoms may appear alone or in various combinations.

A gradual loss of weight accompanied by loss of appetite and nausea often appear early. The victims are frequently pale, with the skin often showing a slightly yellow tinge. As the disease progresses, other symptoms and complications appear.

Many treatments were attempted in past years, but almost always with disappointing results. When first tried the sulfa drugs and penicillin often failed.

Now, however, most patients who develop subacute bacterial endocarditis (provided that the disease is diagnosed early) recover if they are given large enough doses of antibiotics, sometimes in combination — over a long period of time.

THERE ARE STILL some problems: the streptococci causing the infection are not all alike; that is, there are different strains. Some of these strains are more sensitive to the action of antibiotics than others; those which are resistant are much harder to eliminate from the body.

Furthermore, if the patient is treated at first with too small amounts of antibiotics the strain of streptococcus causing that particular infection may become resistant to the preparation and therefore less likely to respond to treatment.

Therefore, the antibiotic or antibiotics are chosen after they have been tested against the particular strain of streptococcus present.

It is a great triumph that a terrible disease like subacute bacterial endocarditis, about which formerly physicians were so helpless, now can be cured in most instances. The remaining difficulties are being gradually mastered.

But it is vitally important that diagnosis (which is not always easy) should be made early, since the outcome is greatly affected by the time at which treatment is started.

225 Attend Father and Son Banquet At Masonic Temple

Two hundred twenty-five were present at a father-son banquet Thursday night sponsored by Salem City and Perry Lodges F. & A.M. in the Masonic Temple. Steve O'Neill, assistant to the general manager of the Cleveland Indians, was guest speaker. The speaker told baseball stories, talked about the 1958 Cleveland Indians and gave "tips" to the boys present on how to play baseball. Entertainer Daffy Dill (Irvin Hoover) of Youngstown, did a comedy routine and drew cartoons as another feature of the program. Rev. Harold Deitch, pastor of the Christian Church, gave the invocation and a short inspirational talk. Gerald Foster was master of ceremonies. Paul Shone, master of Perry Lodge and William Bailey, warden of Salem City Lodge, welcomed the guests. The dinner was served by the Eastern Stars with Miss Elma Auld in charge of the kitchen and Mrs. Kenneth Harsh in charge of the dining room. Serving on the arrangements committee were Gerald Foster and Wendell Church, co-chairmen, Truman Jarvis, Frank Ackelson, Eugene Hively, William Heddleston, Floyd McQuilkin, Jim Johnson, Jack Wilkinson and Fred Moore.

Plaque To Honor Tradesmen Helping to Construct YWCA

Names of laborers and tradesmen who are donating time and effort in the building program of the Young Women's Christian Association will be placed on a plaque to be permanently fixed in the foyer of the YWCA building. A proper memorial to the late Edith M. Ritz, whose gift of money through her will made the YW project possible, also will be arranged for.

Announcement was made at the second annual elections meeting on Thursday night in the Salem High School auditorium. Mrs. Frank Brian, president, opened the meeting, welcomed those in attendance, and gave a report of the first full year's YW activities.

Mrs. Thomas Mercer presented the following slate for a nominating committee, which was elected for 1958: Mrs. Joel H. Sharp chairman, and Mrs. George Rogers, co-chairmen, both board members; and Mrs. Laten Carter, Mrs. M. W. Riegel and Mrs. Wendell Dunn, Y members.

Mrs. Sharp, vice president, presided when reports were heard from the following: Secretary, Mrs. George Rogers; treasurer, Miss Ruth Cosgrove; finance and budget chairman, Miss Eleanor McMurray; building fund chairman, Miss Alice Whinery; Y-Teens advisor, Mrs. Fred Cope; and executive director, Mrs. Robert Hall.

Mrs. R. D. Freseman led the group in repeating the Lord's Prayer to close the meeting.

Want To Be Life of Party? If You Do, Man, You're Sick

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Want to be the life of the party? Dream of tossing off uproarious quips? If you do, man, you're sick. That diagnosis comes from a psychiatrist, Dr. Martin Grotjahn of the University of Southern California.

"A wit," says Dr. Grotjahn, "is an angry man in search of a victim. A witticism is his way of releasing repressed hostility. If he doesn't find a victim, he will probably suffer from a migraine headache attack."

German-born and educated Dr.

Grotjahn has made a search of the cause and meaning of laughter and its relationship to the unconscious. He wrote a book about it entitled "Beyond Laughter."

"A witticism," he said Thursday in an interview, "starts with an aggressive tendency or intent—an insultlike, shocking thought. By clothing the insult with the veneer of laughter and the convention of a joke, the wit brings his bottled up hostilities to the surface in a manner acceptable to society."

Dr. Grotjahn has examined the gamut of comedians, amateur and professional. Some of his conclusions:

THE KIDDER — One who expresses his own conflict with authority, usually his parents; he imitates his father torturing his "kid."

THE CARICATURIST — He insults people, reduces them to the stroke of a brush or pen in a manner acceptable to society.

THE CLOWN — He represents the depreciated father figure; once big and powerful, the father is reduced to a ridiculous, impotent figure.

Do you blame a poor memory for forgetting jokes?

That isn't it at all, Dr. Grotjahn said. It's due to an unconscious desire to avoid the guilt of participating in an aggression.

Integration Stay Requested

Little Rock Board Cites Racial Clashes

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The City School Board Thursday asked a federal court to suspend racial integration at Central High School.

A strongly worded petition requested U.S. District Court to stay an order which allowed nine Negro students to enter the previously all-white school last fall.

The petition virtually said that opposition to integration had made normal school conditions at Central High impossible. It said the school district, in its respect for the law of the land, was "left standing alone, the victim of extraordinary opposition on the part of the state government and apathy on the part of the federal government."

Suspension of the board's integration plan, which was put into effect under the protection of federal troops last September, was asked until:

1. There is a clear definition of the concept "all deliberate speed" in the U.S. Supreme Court's 1954 ruling on school desegregation.

2. There are effective legal procedures by which the schools can be integrated without impairment of the quality of the educational program.

A series of racial clashes has occurred at Central High in recent months and Minniejean Brown, one of the Negro pupils, last Monday was expelled from the school for the rest of the semester.

Minniejean, who plans to enter an interracial school in New York, is the only Negro either expelled or suspended over racial incidents. Several whites have been suspended.

Gov. Orval Faubus said he approved the board's action.

Supt. Virgil T. Blossom said the status of the eight Negroes now attending 2,000-pupil school remains unchanged pending possible court action.

U.S. District Court Judge Ronald N. Davies of Fargo, N.D., holds jurisdiction in the integration case. Davies last fall enjoined Faubus from interfering with integration and rejected an earlier school board request for a stay in the integration order.

A small force of federalized state National Guardsmen still is stationed at Central during class hours.

Dayton Man Killed In Traffic Mishap

DATON, Ohio (AP) — A Dayton man who told police he "saw two headlights, then was out of the car" was treated at Miami Valley Hospital here after an accident that killed his brother-in-law Thursday night.

Police said Walter Jackson Jr., 23, apparently was not seriously injured when her car, believed to have been driven by his brother-in-law, hit a sign marking the north city limits.

They identified the victim as Richard Hamilton, 27, of Dayton.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. C. William O'Neill has appointed Don R. Goddard, president of the Bartlett Farmers Bank, Washington County, to the State Banking Advisory Board for a term ending Jan. 31, 1961.

Egypt, Syria Cast Merger Ballots Today

CAIRO (AP)—Under clouds of a dispute with the Sudan, Egyptians and Syrians voted today to join their countries in the United Arab Republic and to name Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt the first president of the U.A.R.

The Arab union with Nasser as its head had already won widespread popular approval in both countries and the yes-no ballots prepared for the 6½ million voters were a formality.

The already certain results of the plebiscite will be announced officially Saturday. Nasser will immediately take over the U.A.R.

Egyptian officials planned to poll more than 10,000 desert nomads and Nile Valley dwellers in disputed areas along the Sudanese border despite objections from the Sudan government in Khartoum.

Five hours after the end of the vote, the U.N. Security Council was to meet in New York to consider the Sudan's complaint of "impending Egyptian aggression" and possible "armed conflict" in the border areas.

In Cairo, lines of voters were filing past ballot boxes by mid-morning. With no question of the result, there was little excitement or fanfare. That will come Saturday at a mammoth rally in the public square when the plebiscite results are announced.

The U.A.R. was proclaimed in Cairo Feb. 1 and four days later the parliaments in Cairo and Damascus approved a provisional constitution giving Nasser virtually absolute power.

Mother Fined After Attack On Teacher

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—A mother accused of punching a second grade teacher in the nose, pulling her hair, and tearing her clothes, drew a $25 fine and a 60-day suspended jail sentence in Municipal Court here Thursday.

Mrs. Ida Allen, 31, admitted assaulting Mrs. Mathilda Benny Wednesday because, Mrs. Benny, the mother said, had been striking her daughter, Vita, 8, almost every day in school Mrs. Benny teaches at the Whittier Elementary School.

Mrs. Benny denied picking on Vita. She said Mrs. Allen was "unreasonable" and had visited her classroom several times on other complaints.

According to Mrs. Benny, Mrs. Allen walked into the classroom Wednesday and accused her of slapping Vita. Mrs. Benny said she would not discuss it and when she turned away, she testified, Mrs. Allen knocked her to the floor. When she tried to get up, Mrs. Benny said, Mrs. Allen pulled her hair and tore her clothes. Mrs. Benny said her pupils became highly excited, and that several other teachers had to come to her aid.

Mrs. Benny neither denied nor admitted striking Vita. However, Ora Coates, principal at Whittier, testified Mrs. Benny had hit the child.

Art of Growing Old

Rocking Chairs Hold Charm

For Noted Woman Author

Editor's Note—Dr. Lillian Gilbreth, engineer, author, efficiency expert and mother of 12 children, finds the rocking chair has its charms. At 80, the Mother Gilbreth of the book "Cheaper by the Dozen" takes time out for some words of wisdom on coping with the advancing years. She lives in Montclair, N. J.

By LILLIAN M. GILBRETH
MONTCLAIR, N. J. (AP)—Rocking chairs have always attracted me. As a child I loved to see my mother rocking gently, tatting away, humming a folk song to herself—listening to me, giving me a helping hand if I needed it. So rocking chairs have never been a menace to me. Instead, a joy.

fit, mentally alert, emotionally serene and socially adjusted. One should be able to enjoy without possessing and to recognize that many of the best things in life are "free" as far as money is concerned—like service, beauty, affection.

It helps to realize that time and energy are resources—just as money is a resource. If we have little of any of the three we have a challenging job to live—to work—and to be satisfied. But some brave souls seem to manage.

We are living in a time where "youth" seems the most desirable stage of existence—seems synonymous with strength, vitality, happiness. "Calendar age" has come to be a criterion of ability and of opportunities. But what are strength, vitality and happiness? And what about steadiness of purpose—interest—serenity of spirit? And have we more or less of these as the years pass by? We hear much of "beating the calendar." Does this mean keeping busy and useful in spite of growing older? Why not because of growing older?

Perhaps the poet was right when he said:

"Grow old along with me—
"The best is yet to be."

As long as we can remember the happiness of the past, enjoy the blessings of the present, look forward with confidence to the future we should be able to do the best we can with what we have. And we should be able to enjoy our rocking chairs—between the jobs we have found that need to be done—as among the good things of life.

Man Admits Robbing New Bremen Bank

WAPAKONETA, Ohio (AP)—Augusta County Sheriff Robert Davison is expected to file charges today against James Newton Baker, 39, of Celina.

Authorities said Baker, following his arrest in Dayton, admitted the armed robbery of the First National Bank at New Bremen Thursday.

Davison and the Mercer County sheriff, Bruce Barber, said they first suspected Baker after witnesses at the bank described the armed gunman who took $1,276.

Later, a farmer reported he saw a man throw a bundle containing work clothes, a gun holster and some business cards for a Dayton used car lot from a car window.

The two sheriffs said they remembered Baker had worked for a used car dealer in Dayton and notified Dayton police. Davison and Barber drove to Dayton and arrested Baker when he approached the used car lot.

Sheriff Davison reported $686 of the loot has been recovered or accounted for.

RAP TRAIN SERVICE
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Erie Railroad has 15 days to answer complaints from a number of residents at Hiram that rail service between Youngstown and Cleveland is inadequate.

The Erie discontinued two passenger trains Jan. 26. The 15-day limit on answering the complaints was ordered by the Utilities Commission.

Young kangaroos get their first solid food by leaning out of the pouch to nibble at vegetation while the mother is feeding, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

Lady Dynamo

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—All her life Helena Rubinstein has puzzled people by her ability to get so many things done.

Now in her 80s, this jet-haired, tiny lady business dynamo still travels incessantly and actively bosses a 25-million-dollar-a-year world-wide cosmetic empire.

She has financial interests in 100 countries. She maintains three homes, and at one time had eight. "Keep healthy. And always do first the things you most dislike to do. With them out of the way, you then will find you have plenty of time left to do what you want," are her secrets.

Madame Rubinstein is the epitome of the self-made woman. One of eight daughters of a Polish importer, she emigrated to Australia as a girl.

In her baggage were a dozen jars of home-made face cream given to her by her mother. That proved to be the basis of her fortune. After studying chemistry, she opened a beauty parlor, took in $100,000 the first year.

Although surrounded by the trappings of vast wealth, she has a down-to-earth attitude toward life and people. She never fidgets in making up her mind.

Recently, on one day's notice, she invested more than a million dollars in signing as a sponsor for the new ABC-TV network show starring Sid Caesar and Iogene Coca—although she had never seen either perform.

The seat of her empire is a 26-room, three-floor Park Ave. penthouse with 12 bathrooms. She liked the apartment so well she cannily bought the whole building—"so they couldn't raise my rent."

Gifted with an ageless intellectual vigor, Madame Rubinstein refuses to heed the pleas of her two sons to slow down. She has always enjoyed hard work, and feels many people today are spoiled because they don't know the real pleasure that lies in working.

Asked what she regarded as the greatest enemy of womanly beauty, Madame Rubinstein said crisply:

"Not time—laziness."

Mantle, Yankees Near Agreement

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — Outfielder Mickey Mantle and the New York Yankees appear close to agreement on a salary for the 1958 baseball season. The price is estimated at $75,000.

An announcement is expected early next week from Lee MacPhail, assistant to Yankees General Manager George Weiss. If Mantle signs for $75,000, he will receive more money than any other player in Yankee history except Joe DiMaggio ($100,000) and the late Babe Ruth ($90,000).

Mantle's 1957 salary was estimated at $60,000.

MacPhail said, "The entire thing should be cleared up in a few days."

Mantle, 26, hit 34 home runs and drove in 94 runs last year. A leg injury sidelined him most of September but he wound up with a .365 batting average.

Mantle has been in Florida playing golf. MacPhail, asked when he expected to confer with him again,

South Beats Warren; Fitch Rips Niles

Youngstown South defeated Warren Harding 52-48 and Austintown Fitch romped over Niles 73-44 in opening round games of the Youngstown Class AA sectional tourney Thursday night.

South won the game in the last 18 seconds on a layup shot by Bob Douglas. Two more fouls by Art Lewis provided the Warriors with their margin of victory.

Warren trailed 22-12 at one time but rallied to go ahead at the half 24-22. South led 37-36 entering the last period. Douglas then scored to break a 48-48 tie.

Mel Watkins led the winners with 21. Joe Malone and Jim Butler had 16 and 14 for Warren.

Fitch had no trouble with Niles as they jumped into an 18-4 lead before Niles could register a field goal. The Falcons led 32-15 at the half and 48-30 after three periods.

Frank Trio led the winners with 24 while Perrone had 13 for Niles. South and Fitch will lock horns in a clash Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Salem's Ed Jeffries Nets 15 For Malone

Ed Jeffries of Salem scored 15 points last night as Malone College of Canton ended its first year of collegiate basketball with a 5-7 record in beating the Ashland College JV's 80-57 in a game played on the Glenwood High School court.

Malone led 39-23 at the half. Jim Weisenecker of Belmont had 16 for Malone while Dan Murphy of Van Wert, All-Ohio guard in 1953, had 20.

St. Joseph College Seeks Grid Coach

RENSSELAER, Ind. (AP) — St. Joseph College's head football coach, Bob Jauron, said Thursday he would like to have University of Dayton quarterback Don (Butch) Zimmerman on his coaching staff, but the Dayton senior has not been signed for the position.

A story by The Associated Press reported that Zimmerman had been named to the job.

Jauron, who coached Zimmerman at Dayton Chiminade High School, said an announcement concerning the backfield appointment would be made later.

Baseball Trade Costs Lunchroom Owner $29

CLEVELAND (AP)—The baseball trade in Betty's Lunch Thursday land Indian catcher Jim Hegon to the Detroit Tigers was an expensive one for an East Side lunch room proprietor.

Four customers debating the trade in Betty's Lunch Thursday night got into a noisy argument. Fearing a fight, Mrs. Betty Czymkiewicz, the proprietor, dashed outside to summon police.

A customer drinking coffee at the counter walked to the cash register, rang up "no sale" and fled with $29.

Herron Transfer Defeats Foreman's 48-40 In City Class B Playoff Contest

Sekely Edged By E. Furnace

Herron's, Foreman's Tied at 1 Win Each

Herron Transfer defeated Foreman's Window Cleaning 48-40 and Electric Furnace whipped Sekely's 40-38 in Class B city league playoff games Thursday night in the Memorial Building.

Herrons, first round winners in Division A, and Foreman's, second round winners, are tied at one win each in their best of three playoff for the Division A crown. They'll meet Monday at 9 p.m. to see who wins the Division A title in Class B.

Sekely's and Electric Furnace, along with Lindon Way Service, were engaged in a three-team playoff to determine the winner of the second round in Division B.

SEKELY'S WAS eliminated from the second round race last night in its double overtime loss to Electric Furnace. However, Sekely's won the first round in Division B and will play the winner of the Furnace-Lindon game in a best of three playoff to determine the champion of Division B.

Furnace and Lindon play Monday at 8 p.m.

This winner will then play the Herron-Foreman winner for the championship of Class B.

Last night Herron's jumped right into the lead against Foreman's taking a 10-2 first quarter lead. Herron's led 29-11 at the half and 35-23 after three periods.

Ed Votaw and Bill Buckman had 12 each for the winners, while Foreman's was paced by Ed Senior with 16 and George Burier with 12.

A tip in field goal by Bruce Feicht with 35 seconds left in the second overtime game Furnace the margin of victory over Sekely's.

THE TEAMS had been tied at the end of the regulation game 37-37. After one overtime it was still 37-37. In the sudden death extra session, Jim Hoopes had a chance to make two foul shots for Sekely's with two minutes left but made only one. The same thing happened to George West of Furnace with 1:20 left.

Feicht then tipped in a shot with 0:35 left to give Furnace a two-point win.

In the low scoring game, Feicht led the winners with 17 while Andy Salkow hit for 14 to lead the losers.

Furnace led 23-19 at the half but Sekely's came back to tie the count at 31-31 after three periods.

INDIANS BUY PLAYER
CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians have purchased outfielder Carroll Hardy's contract from San Diego of the Pacific Coast League. The former University of Colorado football star will be discharged from the Army next week.

Jockey Eddie Arcaro Becomes Newest '4,000 Club' Member

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP) — Another chapter is added today to the brilliant racing career of Eddie Arcaro.

He has become a member of the exclusive "4,000 club"—the third man in the history of horse racing to ride 4,000 or more winners. The fabled 4,000, which had eluded the 42-year-old stakes king of American racing since the third race at Santa Anita Park last Tuesday, came in the eighth and final race Thursday.

It was aboard a 5-year-old brown gelding named Ban, no more nor less distinguished than the first horse Eddie rode to victory in a long distant afternoon at Tijuana's famed Caliente track in Mexico.

That one's name was Eagle Bird and he started Arcaro on the road to true greatness in one of the most grueling, dangerous and exciting tests of an athlete in sports.

Arcaro received a fine ovation from the 21,500 fans on hand Thursday. But, for a man with some 27 years of riding behind him, Eddie was the least excited. "Actually, it was just another day of racing for me but I'm glad to have reached the 4,000 mark and to get it over with," he said. "I'm going to go right on riding."

Tight Field Begins Second Round of Houston Golf Event

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — The tightest field in the history of the 11-year-old tournament began the second round of the $30,000 Houston Classic Golf Invitational Tournament today.

Six veteran pros ranging in age from 33 to 42 shared the lead. Each built a 4-under 68 with a pair of 34s. Thirty-nine other pros were no more than four strokes behind.

Tied for the lead were Pete Mazur, Buffalo, N.Y.; Ed (Porky) Oliver, Canton, Mass.; Stan Leonard, Vancouver, B.C.; Ted Kroll, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill.; and Milton Marusic, Webster Groves, Mo.

Furgol in 1951 and Kroll in 1956 have won here before over the 7,200-yard, par-72 Memorial Park Course.

One stroke off the pace with 69s were Bill Webb, a former amateur star from Kansas City; E. J. (Dutch) Harrison, the St. Louis veteran who won the 1958 Tijuana Open; Bob Goaly, a former Illinois collegiate athlete now playing out of Darien, Conn.; and Jay Hebert, Sanford, Fla.

Jimmy Demaret, the gallery favorite; Joe Conrad, former British Open champion from San Antonio; and Roberto de Vicenzo, the Argentine from Mexico City, were tied at 70.

Lisbon Blue Devils had no trouble in winning their last regular season game of the year as they rolled over a weak Leetonia quintet 72-36 Thursday night.

The Lisbonites grabbed a 20-12 first quarter edge and were in front 34-21 at intermission. They led 52-28 after three periods.

Curt Nicholson paced the winners with 15 while Lee Radler had the same number of octae hrBs the same number for the Bears.

Sports Sketches

By GORDON ARNDT

The pillar of success which the Salem High Quakers have constructed this season has been built not only with such materials as a strong bench and a 41.1 shooting percentage but with a common ingredient known as "A Desire To Win."

Four times this season the team has either been behind or deadlocked at halftime. However in each case the locals have come back in the second half to cop the verdict.

They trailed Ashland 40-39 at the half and beat them 77-68 Against East Liverpool the Red and Black were behind 32-31 at intermission only to win out in the end 78-65. With Youngstown South they turned a 25-24 halftime deficit into a 53-47 victory. At New Philadelphia the teams were deadlocked 32-32 after two periods. The final score was 71-52 for Salem.

SUCH EXPLOITS may arise from factors like a strong bench and excellent shooting but these elements are only ignited by a burning desire to win.

A typical halftime discussion between Coach John Cabas and his players doesn't primarily concern itself with mapping out new strategy. Rather it consists of words of encouragement, determination and confidence that they, the Quakers, are going to be the winners.

Another factor which has helped to throw salt in the wounds of the Quaker victims this season has been the support the team has received from fellow students and fans alike.

It would not be incorrect to say that there were more Salem people at the Girard game than there were Indian backers.

Coming back from the South game in Youngstown Jan. 28 the traffic along Rt. 62 consisted largely of Salem cars returning home from the tilt.

SALEM PLAYS at 9 p.m. tonight, while in the first game at 7:30, Youngstown East meets Youngstown North. Barring an upset, the Quakers will engage East next Thursday at 9 p.m.

Salem, in 17 straight wins, has averaged 69.3 points a game. Its opponents are averaging 53.9.

A rundown of the averages of the starting five show that Pauline has a 15.6 average with 266 points while Meissner is second at 12.8 with 218 tallies.

Butch Platt is running a close second with 216 counters for 12.7. Lou Slaby has scored 161 times for a 9.4 average while Clyde Marks rounds out the quintet with a 5.8 average on 98 points scored.

RECORDS show that Salem has won 18 straight games in regular season play. This includes a 64-51 win over Canton Central Catholic in the last regular contest in 1957.

The Quakers have lost only one regular season game in the last 22 and only five of the last 44. Cabas' record at Salem is currently 106-46. This is a percentage of 69.7. His career total is 236-77 for 74.6 per cent.

The Salem Junior Saxon basketball team will play Homestead, Pa. tomorrow night for the Saxon League title in a game set at Ellwood City, Pa. Both teams are 6-1 in loop play.

The Saxons are paced by Bill Shuster, Slick Harris and Bob Lutsch along with Marty Lutsch, Jerry Binder, Wilbur Zeck, and Fritz Roth.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL Jewish Center Amateur Invitational Basketball Tournament will start Mar. 6 at the Canton Jewish Center. All entries must be in by Feb. 26 at 10 p.m.

Drawings for the tourney will be held Mar. 2 at 2:30 p.m. The tourney is not open to any Class A teams or players.

Further information may be obtained by contacting Herb Rosengard, 1523 Market Ave. North, Canton 4, Ohio.

BLOOMBERG'S

OUT OF DOORS with Field & Stream

RUFUS L. LIDE

I mentioned in last week's column that we might have one of those "old fashioned winters" and that I felt a lot of pity for the numerous robins that didn't go south for some reason or other. Well "Grandpappy," you can quit your bragging about the old fashioned winters.

Trouble is that you cut down most all of our trees, replaced the houses with tractors, and removed all the rail fences and replaced them with woven wire or no fence at all. They say, "you can't take it with you," but you did.

When the snow comes and the wind blows, it is not given an even distribution. Piles of piles of it are here and there. Highways are closed, farms are barren as a ball park, and there is no place for the birds and animals to go.

So the wildlife that is left, really "gets the works" when one of your old-fashioned winters come along.

I PITY THE QUAIL and the pheasants with all their food covered up. Weed seeds and buds such as they are might sustain survival but all odds are against comfort and contentment.

Of course, there were no pheasants during grandpappy's day. That is something we brought in on a commercial scale so the sportsmen could have some wing shooting after the quail were placed on the songbird list.

Like the kindly old lady said, "I always scatter a few crumbs for the birds"—that helps the cock sparrows alright but how can the other birds survive with a few crumbs in their bellies?

I just wonder how many bird lovers, sportsmen or farmers actually scatter out ear corn so game birds and wild animals can get at it? Saying I don't want anybody shooting "my" birds is one thing and on the other hand what did you do for "my birds."

Chances are, practically all wild birds and animals live in spite of humans. There has been some land development done for the benefit of wildlife by cooperating landowners. But the overall picture of barren lands and strip mine wastes makes a sad picture for wildlife.

THIS IS A good time to take a little personal inventory of hunters and nature lovers alike. Ask yourself what you or your organization has done that has helped wildlife.

Come next hunting season who are you going to blame if we have less game than the preceding year? Don't look to making someone a "scapegoat" or heap coals of fire upon the Ohio Division of Wildlife.

There will never be enough money in state funds to carry out an extensive emergency feeding program. We, all the people, have contributed in some way or another towards the destruction of wildlife.

All the protective laws possible cannot protect the starving birds and animals when nature goes on a rampage aided and abetted by the various land use programs.

MAN IS wildlife's worst enemy whether it be in the form of progressive farming, strip mining or real estate developments.

Wildlife cooperative farm development programs help but they are far behind human destruction.

The wildlife picture looks rather dreary from this corner. I don't know what will be the final answer, do you?

Burning quality of the mustard plaster comes from sulphur in the mustard oil.

Killer whales among the fiercest of all sea creatures, actually are dolphins.

BETTERS OWN MARK — Australia's Olympic Champion Dawn Fraser, left, hugs Lorraine Crapp after breaking her own mark during the Australian Swimming Championships at Melbourne. Miss Fraser's 61.5 for the women's 110-yard freestyle bettered her own world marks of 62.4 and 62 seconds for the 100-meters. She was credited with the same time for the metric equivalents of the distances. Miss Crapp was second in the event.

Michigan State Faces Badgers

Ohio State Hosts Indiana Saturday

By The Associated Press
The Big Ten's first three basketball teams have the home court advantage in Saturday's games, and they probably will need it.

Leading Michigan State (7-3) will try to repel Wisconsin (3-7). Purdue (6-4) is host to Minnesota (4-7) and Ohio State (7-5) in-ter-teams Indians (5-4).

The afternoon regionally televised game sends Northwestern (5-5) to Michigan (4-5). Illinois (4-6) is at Iowa (5-4) for a night engagement rounding out the full slate.

Last place Wisconsin normally would not be considered much of a threat to the Big Ten leader. But the Badgers knocked off MSU 66-52 earlier and also hold a victory over Ohio State, 67-64.

The TV game, starting at 3:30 p.m. CST, brings together two of the conference's statistical leaders. Northwestern is the top scoring team with a 78.7 average, and Michigan is the best rebounding unit, retrieving 54 a game.

Each has two scorers in the top 10. Northwestern's Phil Warren is seventh with 17.4 and Joe Ruklick 10th with 16.8. Michigan's Pete Tillotson is fifth with 20.4 and M. C. Burton ninth with 17.1.

Burton is the league's second best rebounder, picking off 15.8 a game. In their first meeting, Northwestern won 93-72.

Purdue is undefeated in four home conference starts, but Minnesota is determined to end this string. The Gophers upset Purdue 83-76 in the conference opener and have the loop's No. 2 scorer, George Kline, with a 23.2 average.

Indiana failed on its home court Monday to defeat Ohio State, losing 93-83. Their rematch should be a sizzler.

The Buckeyes held the Hoosiers Archie Dees, the Big Ten's leading scorer, to 19 points, most of them coming on corner shots. His average is 24.2.

The average American uses 26 pounds of cotton per year; world average is 3.4 pounds.

Killer whales hunt in packs, swallowing small seals and porpoises whole.

Each club had lost one game in the double elimination tourney prior to Thursday night. Both had lost to Goshen.

Springfield will now advance to district play in Warren along with the Gophers.

Dave Ohlin, Springfield's scoring ace, led his team again, this time running 26 tallies. For Harry Frankland's Bobcats, Dave Hiner and Dustman with 10 each were high.

Greenford's chances were hindered in the first period when the Bobcats scored only two points. The Tigers jumped to a 14-2 lead and stretched it to 29-13 at the half and 55-24 after three periods.

Mr. Frank H. Beatty, accountant

Here's what Frank Beatty says about Ford Dealer Used Cars...

"I HAVE FOUND THAT FORD DEALERS HONESTLY REPRESENT THE CONDITION OF USED CARS WHEN THEY SELL THEM"

But Mr. Beatty isn't the only one who has found that it pays to buy Ford Dealer Used Cars...

Joseph Vesco, miner, says, "I buy used cars from my Ford Dealer because his prices are always right and I can always rely on what he tells me."

"The money I've saved on Ford Dealer Used Cars has helped me buy many things a man needs to raise a family," says Robert E. Hill, chemical company employee.

Maurice K. Brown, foreman, has bought several used cars from his local Ford Dealer because "I'm firmly convinced that the very best buy is an A-1 Used Car."

"I buy used cars from my Ford Dealer because he has always stood behind every used car he sells me," says Charles Simmons, truck driver.

CITRUS QUEEN — Nineteen-year-old Kay MacLean, daughter of a Tampa Episcopal clergyman, was crowned 1958 Florida Citrus Queen at Winter Haven, Fla. Air Age In United States Inaugurated by Washington

On January 9, 1793, the nearly 50,000 citizens of Philadelphia, then the capital of the young United States, turned out to witness a much heralded balloon ascension by one of the most famous aeronauts of the day, the Frenchman, Jean Pierre Blanchard. It was man's first venture into the sky in the United States.

The scene was the yard of the old Walnut Street Prison, facing what is now known as Independence Square. The place was chosen in order to protect Blanchard from excited onlookers and also to serve as an "arena for his paying guests."

It was a mild day, in the forties, as Blanchard recorded in his Journal describing the occasion.

Most notable of those in the courtyard was George Washington, then completing his first term as president. It is possible that four men who were later to head the nation in their turn were also among the throng — John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Madison and James Monroe.

BLANCHARD'S FAME had preceded him to this country. Less than 10 years before, the Montgolfier brothers had built the first balloon in France, a paper affair lifted by heated air. A ballooning craze soon swept over Europe.

Blanchard's most famous feat was the first crossing of the English Channel, which for that day, could be likened to Lindbergh's flight over the Atlantic.

While a brass band played and a 15-cannon salute was fired in honor of the president, Blanchard tested his instruments and went about filling the highly varnished silk gas bag. The gas he used was hydrogen generated from zinc, iron or magnesium and a dilute acid.

WHEN ALL WAS READY he attached his "car."

Washington then stepped forward and handed Blanchard, who could speak little English, a "safe conduct pass" which read:

"George Washington, President of the United States of America to all whom these presents come. The bearer hereof, Mr. Blanchard a citizen of France proposing to ascend in a balloon from the city of Philadelphia, at 10 o'clock a.m., this day, to pass in such direction and to descend in such place as circumstances may render most convenient — These are therefore to recommend to all citizens of the United States and others, that in his passage, descent, return or journeying elsewhere, they oppose no hindrance or molestation to the said Mr. Blanchard; And that on the contrary, they receive and aid him with that humanity and good will, which may render honor to their country, and justice to an individ-

There were Americans who had dim visions of the future even in those days. Benjamin Franklin who had died in 1790 had witnessed the first balloon flights in Paris. When asked what good balloons were, he had replied: "What good is a new-born baby?"

It is not unlikely that Washington, witness to the first venture in America along that "new road in the vast expanse of heaven" shared that opinion.

Akron Man Indicted For Murder, Kidnaping

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—First degree murder and kidnaping indictments were returned by a special Summit County grand jury Thursday against William R. Carson, 25, who admitted driving around for 48 days with the body of his slain sweetheart in the trunk of his car. Police at Warwick, Va., found the body of Miss Donna Jean Marsh, 19, of Akron, Feb. 7 after they impounded the car Carson was driving for having improper license plates. Miss Marsh was the mother of Carson's 13-month-old daughter. The car was one that was reported stolen from a user car lot where Carson was employed here, police said. Prosecutor John Ballard said Carson admitted strangling Miss Marsh here Dec. 21 because she changed her mind after she had agreed to run away with him.
